The setting

Berry Good Farms offers an urban rustic experience on 8-acres in the heart of Jacksonville. Hidden beneath a canopy of live oaks sits a picturesque red barn, spacious event deck encasing an ancient live oak, and covered riding pavilion that can be adorned to suit your special occasion—whether casual or elegant. Raised bed gardens sit adjacent to oaks ornamented with vintage market lights and a quaint amphitheater.

Berry Good Farms includes multifunctional event space in and around North Florida School of Special Education's new campus completed in 2020. The campus boasts the Delores Barr Weaver Therapeutic Equestrian Center; Berry Good Farms Café with an outdoor patio, professional caterer's kitchen, gymnasium, and spacious grassy field perfect for festivals. Your guests will be amazed by the unique beauty and convenience of this one-of-a-kind event space.

Capacity: 10–400 guests

Location: Less than 10 minutes east of downtown Jacksonville

The service

Berry Good Farm's talented event staff will help transform your vision into reality. Our team is available for set-up, clean-up, and every detail in between to ensure a memorable day for your guests. Event management services are à la carte to suit your needs and budget. We can assist with lighting, flooring, floral, and décor.

Onsite catering provides guests with distinctive farm-to-table fare and specialty cocktails prepared by Chef Carrie Eagle, whose skills rival the celebrity chefs she has competed against on Food Network challenges. Berry Good Farms offers an option for caterer's full use of the professional kitchen.

weddings

Brides searching for a distinctively different, uniquely magnificent wedding venue in Jacksonville need to look no further than Berry Good Farms. The farm offers a rustic chic setting under a canopy of oaks adorned with vintage market lights.

Exchange your vows on an elevated deck encasing an ancient live oak, affectionately named The Walking Tree, as it offers unconditionally a canopy of protection without judgement... always steadfast... ever enduring... a symbol of perfect love.

Your guests can enjoy a memorable cocktail reception as the horses look on before moving to the open-air riding pavilion exquisitely transformed for al fresco dining.

Berry Good Farms offers many distinct backdrops for your wedding photos, and private quarters to prepare with your wedding party.

The story

Beautiful, Versatile Venue With A Social Impact

When you choose Berry Good Farms for your special occasion, you are making a direct social impact. Event proceeds support the educational, vocational, and therapeutic programs of North Florida School of Special Education. The funds also allow the school to employ several graduates, reducing their reliance on government assistance. These students are distinctively different in how they learn and uniquely magnificent just as they are.
